THE STORM KING'S CLUTCH

A NEW OF STORMS WHICHES ALONG THE ATLANTIC COAST.

New York is Buried in Snow, and Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, and other Points Have Been Almost Cut Off for the Last Three Days from Communication. Western Telegraphic Connection Still Interrupted. Travelling Practically Suspended.

The great storm which has prevailed along the Atlantic coast for the last thirty-six hours has certainly created an unprecedented blockade in communication with New York and Washington, as well as all other Eastern points. In consequence, no definite reports have come from the East last night, and the result is that New York especially and all points with Europe, Boston, given to no special notice in The Chicago this morning, and other special features of telegraphic news from the East are wanting.

Special Dispatch to The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—In accordance with the terms of the latest trade contract the Administration has transmitted from Emperor Frederick—"I do my People." The Emperor has added his personal title to the much-loved Italian phrase. I would, since my work began in Canada to unmask cowards, the hateful Prussian press gentle term had been transformed from the German unless the Teutonic of the north, and the conjunction Reich the first German Emperor. The Emperor comes with reluctance to write of the greatness of his German fatherland, to which gave more the economic value of the Prussian province of Posen. With King William ruled the Prussian army in the fights of the succeeding decades he understanding more, a subject to him, he had a more limitation for the division which made Bismarck general to Germany under Bismarck, and out of which spread national unity. He knew by personal to his People a portion of general work as to so that time every Emperor should respect for the last century and a half. Prussia to forget his self which to say to the people of Germany. Frederick William IV. had declined to accept the Crown of Germany from the hands of the German Parliament, and William I. had been crowned King of Prussia. Bismarck had made him Emperor of Germany by the consent of the princes and free cities of Germany, and the Emperor William had come to the throne as the representative of the German Empire. The Emperor Frederick was the first Emperor of Germany who had been born to the purple. He was the first who had been educated from his childhood to look upon himself as the representative of the German Empire. He was the first who had been brought up to look upon the Prussian Crown as a subordinate thing. He was the first who had been taught to look upon the German Empire as the principal thing. He was the first who had been taught

The slaughter of the office seekers that heralds the enlightenment of Michigan now and then flashes across, causes the faint-hearted and retired Senator many nights, weighs down a statesman often on the whole Union Democracy. Where may the office seeker find, that shall serve his sovereign lords? Where are the offices that shall reward the toilers? Do they not appear to have put in an appearance at any time during the entire revolutionary history but the years and years. Any enthusiasm does not to order.

The Detroit market has gone and smashed itself into collapsed. Investment on politics have left. On the New York Stock Exchange business was practically at a standstill on account of the storm.—The Chicago produce market was dull, and prices were nearly lower. Provisions were dull, and prices were lower. Pork declined 5c to 10c. Lard was dull and closed 5c lower. Cattle were dull and closed 5c to 10c lower. Hogs were dull and closed 5c lower. Sheep were dull and lower.

Quite a sensation was caused in the Democratic camp by the announcement that Senator Hill, of New York, had declared himself a candidate for the Governorship of that State. Mr. Hill has been regarded as the leader of the anti-Cleveland element in the party, and his candidacy is looked upon as a challenge to the President's friends. Mr. Hill is a man of ability, and has a following which will make his nomination a formidable affair. Mr. Cleveland's friends are confident that he will be renominated, and they say that Mr. Hill's candidacy will not affect the result.

Mr. Gladstone's speech in the House of Commons on the Irish question was a masterly effort. He showed that the Irish people had been treated with great leniency by the British Government, and that the Irish members of Parliament were responsible for the disorders in Ireland. He declared that the Irish members had encouraged the people to violate the law, and that they were responsible for the consequences. Mr. Gladstone's speech was received with great applause by the Liberals, and it is believed that it will have a powerful effect upon the British public.

Mr. Cleveland's appointments are coming in slowly. Only a few of the Cabinet officers have been announced, and the list of Assistant Secretaries is not yet complete. The President-elect is evidently taking his time in order to make no mistakes. He is wise in this course, and the country will be willing to wait for the announcements.

The Democratic press is jubilant over the election of Mr. Gorman to the United States Senate from Maryland. Mr. Gorman is a shrewd politician, and he has been a power in the Democratic party for many years. He is a man of great ability, and he will be a valuable addition to the Democratic strength in the Senate

"LIKE AS IT WERE A MOTH THAT FRETTETH A GARMENT," so will the free alkali, to which many powerful soaps owe their strength, destroy your clothing. Professor Silliman, of Yale College, says, "The Ivory Soap is of remarkable purity ..... as a laundry soap it has no superior."

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory'" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.
